

The Printing Press

By: Claire Leishman

Greatest invention was the printing press.
The Renaissance it was made and evolved.
The printing press found ways to solve distress.

With ink, paper, platens, it made progress.
Books were like gold, the press had this resolved.
Greatest invention was the printing press.

Fourteen forty made, still used with impress.
Books talked to people and were quite involved.
The printing press found ways to solve distress.

Click, clank as it prints work that is finesse.
Finding an efficient method was solved!
Greatest invention was the printing press.

Johannes Gutenberg devised the press.
Billions of hours it took when he got stalled.
The printing press found ways to solve distress.

Companies used the press and found success.
The press was a great genius, it enthralled.
Greatest invention was the printing press.
The printing press found ways to solve distress.

Sources:

History.com by Dave Roos, latest copyright date September 3rd, 2019

<https://www.history.com/news/printing-press-renaissance>

Textbook, latest copyright date 2007 (there no specific day or people who wrote it)

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1SUCOBReLWyv8fLjaiXTgtPlcyGsVzBmh/view>

Wikipedia (no specific people are listed), latest copyright date November 26, 2021

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Printing_press